

Says

Thinks

How to subscribe a channel?
What are the contents available in a YouTube channel?

. How to create a YouTube account?
How to create a gmail account?

Is this content are worthful for me?
Is this content are true?

Is this content are informative?
What are the trending subjects added to the content?

What are the features of this channel?
How to add comments to the channel?

Is this content are available in all languages?
Is this content have any additional information and external links?

what are things, these content can actually explain?
Is this content are related to our searched topic?

How to download the software for computers?
Suggest a top most channel for this content?

How to create playlists on YouTube?
How to join a member in a particular channel?

.Is this content have any issues?
From which source this content are taken?

Engage:
Subscribers actively click, open, or watch your content, showing their interest and engagement.

Read/Watch/Listen:
They consume the content you've provided, spending time to understand the information or entertainment you're offering.

Excitement:
When subscribers are enthusiastic and eager to engage with new content.

Curiosity:
Content that sparks interest and leaves subscribers wanting to learn more

Share:
If they find the content valuable or interesting, they might share it with others on social media, email, or word of mouth.

Comment/Interact:
Subscribers might leave comments, ask questions, or engage in discussions related to your content, fostering a sense of community.

Appreciation:
When they value and enjoy the content, often leading to positive comments and shares.

Frustration:
If the content is misleading, confusing, or doesn't meet expectations

Disappointment:
When subscribers had higher hopes for the content and it falls short.

Does

Feels

See an example